

Post-Abortion Pastoral and Professional Conference

How great is the mercy of the Lord, and His forgiveness to them that turn to Him!

Ecclesiasticus 17:28

Friday, November 9, 2012 ~ Clergy Only

8:30 a.m. - 2:45 p.m., University of Dallas, Lynch Auditorium

Saturday, November 10, 2012 ~ Health Professionals & Lay Persons

8:00 a.m. - 3:45 p.m., University of Dallas, Lynch Auditorium

Day 1, November 9: For all ordained clergy

Internationally Renowned Keynote:

Vincent Rue, Ph.D.

Director of the Institute for Pregnancy Loss, Jacksonville, FL

Effects of Abortion on Women, Men and Society:

An Integrated Approach to Post-Abortion Healing

Additional Presenters:

Most Reverend Mark J. Seitz, Auxiliary Bishop of Dallas

Theology of the Aborted Soul and

Welcoming the Post-Abortive Penitent Back to Life in the Church

Father Paul W. McNellis, S.J., Boston College, Project Rachel™ Ministry

The Post-Abortive Penitent in the Confessional

Diana Morin, LPC-S, LMFT, Discoveries Christian Counseling Founder

Building an Understanding of the Post-Abortive Individual, Marriage and Family:

Developing an Effective Comprehensive Ministry Response

Rebecca Calvo, LPC, Senior Bilingual Crisis Counselor

The Effects of Abortion on the Spanish-Speaking Community and

The Rachel's Vineyard™ Retreat: Identifying the Candidate and What to Expect on Retreat

Clergy Panel Discussion with

Bishop Mark J. Seitz, Father Paul W. McNellis,

Father Wilmer de Jesus Daza and Father Greg Kelly

Register at prolifedallas.org/conference or call 972-267-LIFE (5433)

Free attendance for clergy; pre-registration required.

(includes lunch and USCCB Project Rachel™ Clergy Resource Manual)

*Sponsored by the Catholic Pro-Life Committee of North Texas
Respect Life Ministry of the Diocese of Dallas*

Post-Abortion Pastoral and Professional Conference

How great is the mercy of the Lord, and His forgiveness to them that turn to Him!

Ecclesiasticus 17:28

Friday, November 9, 2012 ~ Clergy Only

8:30 a.m. - 2:45 p.m., University of Dallas, Lynch Auditorium

Saturday, November 10, 2012 ~ Health Professionals & Lay Persons

8:00 a.m. - 3:45 p.m., University of Dallas, Lynch Auditorium

Day 2, November 10: For Mental Health Professionals, Physicians, & Lay Persons (CEUs available)

Internationally Renowned Keynote:

Vincent Rue, Ph.D.

Director of the Institute for Pregnancy Loss, Jacksonville, FL

Effects of Abortion on Women, Men and Society and

Essentials of Post-Abortion Counseling: Best Practices for Referrals to Others

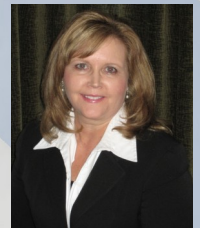

Additional Presenters:

Diana Morin, LPC-S, LMFT, Discoveries Christian Counseling Founder

Building an Understanding of the Post-Abortive Individual, Marriage and Family:

Developing an Effective Comprehensive Therapeutic Response

Father Paul W. McNellis, S.J., Boston College, Project Rachel™ Ministry

How to Help a Person Rebuild Faith and Reconnect with God after an Abortion

Ed O'Brien, Ph.D., LMFT, St. Rita Pastoral Center

The Complexity of Post-Abortion Treatment: Histories, Emotions and Treatment Goals

Rebecca Calvo, LPC, Bilingual Crisis Counselor

The Rachel's Vineyard™ Retreat: Identifying the Candidate and What to Expect on Retreat

Register at prolifiedallas.org/conference or call 972-267-LIFE (5433)

$75 for professionals with CEU Credit

(5 hours of CEU available for LPC, LSW & LMFT)

$25 for all other persons

Registration fee includes lunch and all materials

Sponsored by the Catholic Pro-Life Committee of North Texas
Respect Life Ministry of the Diocese of Dallas