

YOUTH FOR LIFE MARCH FOR LIFE 2011 ESSAY CONTEST

THE RULES

This year's theme is:

“What would our Founding Fathers have to say about Roe v. Wade?”

- ✚ Write a 400-word essay reflecting on the theme.
- ✚ One full scholarship to the 2011 March for Life will be awarded to the best overall essay. Second place is $100 towards the trip fee and third place is $50 towards the trip fee.
- ✚ The contest is open to students in grades 9 through 12.
- ✚ The essay should be typed, double spaced, and in size 12 Times New Roman or similar font.
- ✚ Short essays under 350 words and long essays over 400 will not be eligible.
- ✚ Essays are due no later than November 15, 2010 by 8:00 p.m. Entries may be submitted online only.
- ✚ Grammar and spelling are important and may determine the difference between 1st place and runner up.
- ✚ Submit your essay online at www.prolifedallas.org/dcmarch.
- ✚ Do not include your name or anything that might identify you within your essay. (For example, instead of saying, “I’m the president of the pro-life club at John Smith High School,” just say that you’re the president of your school pro-life club.)
- ✚ Your essay will be judged by a panel of judges that will not know the author of the essay.
- ✚ Contest results will be announced November 22nd.

GOOD LUCK! ☺
